

ONLINE PREDATORS

ONLINE PREDATORS

Online predators are people who pose as someone else to try to get information about you so they might meet you offline and cause you harm.

Where might you meet an online predator?

Social Media

Online Gaming

70% of teens report receiving messages from people they don't know.

30% of teens say they have considered meeting someone they only know through online contact in the real world!

14% actually have met someone!

HOW PREDATORS TRICK YOU

"Grooming"

The process a predator takes to gain your trust in order to get what they want

Asks to start private messaging, "Let's go private"

The more information a person learns about you, the more opportunities that person has to trick you

-  What's your name? Don't
-  How old are you? Share
-  Do you have a bf/gf? Private
-  Where do you live Info

Don't be fooled!

If you have never met them in the real world, never agree to meet them in person without telling a trusted adult - and NEVER give out personal information!

Warning: THIS IS NOT SAFE

YOU DECIDE...

1. When someone makes you feel uncomfortable online you should...
 - a. Ignore their messages and report them
 - b. Do not agree to meet them in person
 - c. Tell a trusted adult
 - d. All of the above
2. Does the time you spend on the computer equal trust?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
3. What are the risks of meeting someone offline?
4. What if a friend confides in you that they are going to meet someone they don't know face to face in person. What could you do to help them?

HOW DO YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE REALLY "TALKING" TO?

PREDATOR RED FLAGS

- They refuse to talk on the phone.
- Similar interests.
- Asking for personal information.
- Wants to get serious way too fast.
- Offers gifts, money or cell phones.
- Negative comments about your parents, friends or family.
- Tries extra hard to be your friend or is overly complimentary.

REPORT IT IF...

- SOMEONE TALKS TO YOU ABOUT INAPPROPRIATE THINGS
- SOMEONE SENDS YOU OR ASKS FOR INAPPROPRIATE PHOTOS OR VIDEOS
- SOMEONE ASKS TO MEET YOU IN PERSON

Be suspicious - any person worth having as a friend wouldn't put you at risk!
